1118 - IT Developer, Angular, Ionic, IOS

Location:	Barcelona, Spain
Languages:	English (Advanced)
Fields:	Engineering and IT & Web development
Extra benefits:	Salary of +500€.

Description:

Our cooperator is an international team that dreams of having a global impact. They are building a win-win solution that makes "Bus rental easy", trip organisers get a better service and bus companies make a better living. They are located in Barcelona, Spain.

They started the project in July, so you are joining at an early stage and have the opportunity to shape the culture and the technical stack of our solution. So far they are using Firebase as a back-end, AngularJS for the web app and Ionic for the hybrid-mobile Android and iOS app. Whether you have a long experience in these technologies or a strong interest we want to hear from you. At the beginning we expect on-site presence. Fluency in English and/or French would be appreciated.

A valid work eu permit / residence card is required.

To apply for the position please include the following elements:

- A writeup explaining who you are as a programmer. Sample questions you might want to address: What projects have you enjoyed working on? Which have you disliked? What motivates you? What surprising things have you learned about yourself since starting to program? Feel free to say as much as you want but keep it less than a page.
- A piece of code that does something you find interesting, and an explanation of why. (It doesn't have to be your own code.)
- Links to professional online profiles that you can share with us (GitHub, Twitter, StackExchange, etc)
- References if you can provide them.
- A description of your work history (whether as a resume, LinkedIn profile, or a couple of paragraphs).
- If there are issues you would be particularly interested to work on, please let us know (and tell us why!). We ask this to figure out how we could mix your interests and strengths with the teams.
