

RULES FOR USING THE STUDY ROOM
at the Poznan University of Technology Student Housing Complex

§1. General provisions

1. These rules set out the rules for using the study room located on the premises of the Student Housing Complex.
2. The rules apply to all residents of the Student Housing Complex, their guests and other persons authorised to use the study room.
3. The study room is a common area intended for quiet individual work or study in small groups.
4. The purpose of the rules is to ensure conditions conducive to concentration, study and mutual respect among users.

§2. Rules of use

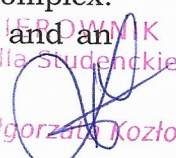

1. The study room functions as a publicly accessible common space.
2. The study room is available 24 hours a day, with the exception of quiet hours from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m.
3. Please remain quiet in the room and do not disturb other users by:
 - 1) having loud conversations,
 - 2) using mobile phones without headphones or in speakerphone mode,
 - 3) playing music and films without headphones.
4. The use of laptops, tablets and other electronic devices is permitted provided that they do not disturb the silence.
5. After using the study room, please take your belongings with you, dispose of any rubbish and tidy up your workstation.

§3. Responsibility and prohibitions

1. Users are responsible for the property located in the study room.
2. The following are prohibited in the study room:
 - 1) consuming alcohol and other intoxicating substances,
 - 2) eating meals (drinks in sealed containers are permitted),
 - 3) moving or removing equipment from the room without the consent of the administration,
 - 4) admitting unauthorised persons without the consent of the administration.
3. In the event of a violation of the regulations, the administration has the right to:
 - 1) issue a warning,
 - 2) restrict or suspend access to the study room,
 - 3) report the matter to the relevant services or university authorities.

§4. Final provisions

1. The rules and regulations are effective from the date of announcement and are available in a visible place in the study room and on the Student Housing Complex.
2. Use of the study room implies acceptance of these rules and regulations and an obligation to comply with them.

WIEPOWNIK
Osiedla Studentckiego

mgr Małgorzata Kozłowska